Biblical Hebrew Course

Would you like to take an introductory course on biblical/classical Hebrew at the University of Alberta? The Hebrew Bible is one of the most important texts not only in Jewish and Christian religious traditions but in the whole of world history and literature—and understanding the language in which it is written is central to understanding the text itself. The course can only be offered, however, if there are enough students. If you are interested in such a course, contact Peter Sabo in the Office of Interdisciplinary Studies at psabo@ualberta.ca.

The Road to Discipleship: Company's coming!

Jesus tells us today that the Father, Son, and Spirit will make their home with those who love Jesus and keep his word. Unless we allow the Triune God to help us prepare ourselves, not one of us would be ready for them to make a home with us! God created each person with the potential to host this indwelling. The gospels are both ‘instruction manual’ and ‘guide’. The ‘tools’ are the seven sacraments of the Church. To move from knowing what to do to actually doing it, though, we need the help of grace. Grace is a gift of the Spirit. We cannot experience grace, except by looking at the blessings of our lives. Do you see evidence in yours? – Quid Novum
History of St. Joe’s
At the invitation of Henry Marshall Tory, first president of the University of Alberta in 1926 the Catholic community under Archbishop John Joseph O’Leary founded an affiliated College on the University campus. Guided by the Christian Brothers, St. Joseph’s College housed up to one hundred men in a handsome brick building that included a chapel, dining room, classrooms and library. Through its affiliation agreement, the College offered university credit courses in Christian apologetics, ethics and philosophy. Beginning with the College’s first rector, Brother Rogatian, in those early years Christian Brothers on staff taught in several faculties of the University.
In 1963, Archbishop John Hugh MacDonald invited the Basilian Fathers to assume administrative responsibility for St. Joseph’s College. During the next decades, its academic offerings were considerably expanded. Further, chaplaincy services assumed greater prominence on campus. Only recently, its residence gained an increased prominence on campus. St. Joseph’s Basilica, 10044 - 113 Street, Edmonton. A reception will follow. For more information, contact dpwest@devp.org or call 1-844-480-3387.

You are invited to join Archbishop Smith at a Mass of Celebration at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, April 27, at St. Joseph’s Basilica, 10044 - 113 Street, Edmonton. A reception will follow.
