Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the Lectionary’s Year of Luke presents a Gospel in which Jesus, who has welcomed, taught, healed, and shown God’s mercy to the multitude, refuses the Twelve’s demand to dismiss the crowd before him. Instead, he says, “Give them some food yourselves” (Luke 9:13). In Jesus’ hands, what little the Twelve has feeds five thousand (“men,” and probably as many women and children), leaving twelve baskets so the Twelve can continue Jesus’ ministry of mercy.

Pope Francis has asked how we celebrate and live the Twelve basket story. Instead, he heal, and shows God’s mercy to the multitude, refuses the Twelve’s demand to dismiss the crowd before him. Instead, he says, “Give them some food yourselves” (Luke 9:13). In Jesus’ hands, what little the Twelve has feeds five thousand (“men,” and probably as many women and children), leaving twelve baskets so the Twelve can continue Jesus’ ministry of mercy.

For the Year of Mercy, the Worskiping Community is kindly asked to pray for the healing of First Nations Peoples.

Mental Health, Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia – Where Are We Going?
In this video, Dr. William Sullivan presents highlights from two Consensus Statements developed during the International Association of Catholic Bioethicists’ (IACB) 7th International Colloquium in Montreal, June 25-July 2, 2015.
A key theme relevant to current Canadian public-policy discussions is the need for greater medical and Christian collaboration in understanding and addressing mental health care needs. This presentation considers the issues of vulnerability, resilience, and wellness in both medical and Christian understanding and in light of legislative proposals to allow assistance in suicide and euthanasia in Canada.

Dr Sullivan is a family physician with a focused clinical practice in the primary care of adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD) or Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD) and the elderly.
